

Companies Participating in San Pedro

"Our participation does not only provide us an opportunity to carry out a CSR."
-RADM. Gaerlan AFP (Ret)

"We support the maritime industry and empower young learners through the AAS program, enhancing opportunities to share our industry."
- C/E Martin

"Provides a chance to make a significant impact in the maritime sector and society."
-Capt. Santosidad

"As part of its commitment to corporate social responsibility, Wallem-Westminster gained tremendous value by joining the AAS program."
-Capt. Leal Jr.

"The AASI program has greatly benefited San Pedro City students by offering experiences in the global maritime industry."
- Mr. Opulencia

"Our involvement in the AAS Program demonstrates our dedication to teaching maritime skills to young people."
- Capt. Capayas

"AASI is an admirable initiative that creates meaningful links between seafarers and local communities."
- Capt. Garcia

"Your participation in AASI helps improve the safety and quality of life of all seafarers"
-George Hoyt, FNI, IMO Goodwill Maritime Ambassador

"Motivated to join AASI to inspire future seafarers and highlight the importance of maritime industry."
-Capt. Pabilario

"Supporting the AASI initiative benefits both the maritime industry's future and community engagement for companies."
-Capt. Rafael

"The AASI objective aligns with our CSR by focusing on education, specifically adopting elementary schools."
-Mr. Galvez Jr.

"AASI promotes maritime industry awareness and environmental protection from an early age."
-Mr. Tuapin

Contact Us!

philippines@adoptaship.org